My Potter's Wheel Journey Overcoming the Odds

About the Author

Dr. Corinthia Ridgley Boone is a native of Prince George's County who serves as a bridge-builder of unity and ambassador of prayer and reconciliation in our nation and beyond. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Education and a Master of Administration from Bowie State University, and a Ph.D. in Philosophy and Counseling from Union University. She worked in the Prince George's County school system for 25 years as a teacher, principal and instructional specialist.

In 1987 she founded Together in Ministry International to facilitate international and inter-racial relationships among pastors and churches in the capital region. In 1996 she birthed the International Christian Host Coalition to help coordinate churches, ministries and organizations in the processes of reconciliation, evangelistic ministry and services to the hurting.

She has served as the chairperson of the Capital City National Day of Prayer since 1985 and was honored in "Who's Who in Women's Ministry" in 1988.

Dr. Boone has worked tirelessly in the matters of racial healing and as a statesman of prayer, serving on numerous national and regional boards. She has spoken in many venues across the United States and other nations. Her emphasis on prayer, unity, racial reconciliation and bridging the gap between generations earns her a unique position in the nation and world at large. She is God's ambassador of prayer and reconciliation.

The prayer generals include Toby Holmes, Stephen Underwood, Pastor Jeff Wright, Dexter and Angela Colburn, Pastor Michael Obi, Dr. Andre Randall, Sheryl Harris, Jason Hershey and many others, along with my spiritual sons and daughters who stand and serve these moments of Kingdom-strategy faithfully. What a joy! I remember so many prayer meetings where we stood in the gap together, building up our community, city, nation and world.

These leaders represent an army of faithful intercessors who are persistent in prayer—a unified army that are here on this National Day of Prayer to do battle against the forces of darkness.

Then, I watch with anticipation as Thomas Zelaya's shofar ministry steps forward. When the shofar is blown, my heart quickens in anticipation of that final trumpet blast—heralding the triumphant return of Christ.

I watch the ministry flow move from prayer to worship seamlessly throughout the afternoon. All minds and hearts focus on Jesus.

Near the end, I see all the multicultural youth in the assembly come forward to be affirmed and commissioned by the elders of the capital area (Malachi 4:6). My heart pounds with gratitude as I see the sincere hearts of the mature and youth embrace with tears of desire to grow up to be people after Jesus' heart. I see the power of the Holy Spirit truly at work here. I rejoice! God is moving upon the NOW Generation.

What a privilege it is to help light their fire.

I SEE HEAVEN ON EARTH

As the sun begins to set on the Capital City National Day of Prayer, I feel the glorious presence of God in our midst. I step up to the podium one final time. Tears run down my cheeks as I ponder the faces of colleagues and friends, past and present, too numerous to record.

With a glance over my shoulder, I signal Pastor Diane Robinson and the Voices of Unity choir to begin the closing worship song. We sing it every year—for over thirty-five years. It's the theme song of my life—the mantle that I carry for the Church of Jesus Christ (Revelation 7:9)—validated through relationships. The song reflects Gods agape love—which I asked the wise Master Potter to shape and mold many years ago.

You can too.

“Ask and you will receive” (Matthew 7:7).

You might say our closing song reflects my name—Corinthia—which comes from “Corinth,” where Paul wrote his letters to the Corinthians. In

In the fall of 2021 NPE director Jeff Wright was blessed to see that Dr. Corinthia Boone had mentioned Jeff as a “prayer general” at the top of page 147 of her recently published autobiography (see previous page and above on this page). Over the last 40 years in the D.C. area Jeff has attended many joint church meetings led by Dr. Boone. For a copy of her book, phone her at 202-489-5925.

Barry Tubbs
Kenneth Copeland Ministries
Fort Worth, TX 76192 ph. 817-252-2700
Dear Barry,

December 15, 2021

Thanks again for all the help you've given us through the past 25 years with the D.C. Prayer Tours you've allowed us to organize from your annual D.C. Victory Campaign. We held our 26th annual D.C. Prayer Tour on Sunday, November 14, at 9 A.M. until 11 A.M., on the morning after your recent D.C. Victory Campaign ended!

The reservations this year totaled 6, of which all 6 attended (see group photo below). Per Covid pandemic restrictions the Hylton Chapel did not allow us to set up a reservation table in the hallway outside your main meeting room as in every past year. All of your other usual vendor tables were likewise missing including your product sales tables.

See the enclosed copy of an announcement I gave to one of your staff workers in the main front lobby on Sat. Nov. 13 at about 9:25 A.M. for them to give to you—it asked people to call our 800 phone number to make bus reservations. You may remember this is how we took reservations the first year you held a D.C. Victory Campaign back in 1994. As far as I could tell, that announcement was never made over the sound system from your platform this year.

Despite the lack of an announcement, but because of the past 25 years we have offered the D.C. Prayer Tour annually from your D.C. Victory Campaign, the four people besides myself shown in the photo below recognized me in the hallways between your meetings, and made verbal reservations.

The Quality Tours 56-passenger bus we used this year was on-time, in excellent condition, with a friendly, capable driver. The temperature was close to freezing, but the sky was mostly clear. We included in the tour a group prayer for God to strengthen Kenneth and Gloria and all of you from KCM as a special multiplied return for giving us the glorious D.C. Victory Campaign again this year!

Our bus rental charge for Nov. 14 was $604. The offering we collected that day on the bus totaled $220. Enclosed is $100 as a tithe and offering for KCM—praise God! God has always made up the difference! Also enclosed are some of the Nov. 14 participant response forms.

It's been on my heart for some years to ask you to pray about having me on the daily TV broadcast with Kenneth and yourself to promote the creation of prayer tours in every city across America and the world. More than ever the body of Christ needs this practical proven discipline to be doers of 1st Tim. 2:1-4 and first of all make intensive, extensive interaction with God for fervent, effectual, strategic, anointed supplications (specific urgent requests), prayers (more general year-round requests), intercessions by the Spirit of God to block hell and bridge for heaven, and giving of thanks, like Kenneth Hagin Sr. used to say, in effect, "Pray till you sing, that's when you know you have the victory." One prayer teacher used to recommend a weekly Saturday morning prayer tour of abortion clinics in cities to add variety, intensity and focus in conjunction with daily early morning prayer and lengthy Friday night prayer meetings at the church building.

We look forward to working with you at your future meetings in D.C. and elsewhere as the Lord directs!

To coincide with the 2021 Kenneth Copeland Ministries Washington, D.C. Victory Campaign, the National Prayer Embassy is offering a free guided “Prayer Tour of Our Nation’s Capital” on Sunday, November 14, 2021, at 9 A.M. leaving from and returning to the main front entrance of the Comfort Suites Hotel, 14525 Gideon DR (ph. 703-490-4100), located adjacent to the Hylton Memorial Chapel in Woodbridge, VA.

This two-hour tour will use a professional tour bus (restroom equipped) to pass several of the main government buildings and monuments in Washington, D.C., using them as reminders to pray for our leaders, so that we will have peace to spread the gospel (1st Timothy 2:1-4).

Prayer Handbooks will be provided, to pray God’s Word out loud together for nations, leaders and world events, in a spirit of faith, love and victory, with praise and worship as the Holy Spirit leads.

There is no charge for this tour, but reservations are required, and can be obtained by calling 1-800-828-PRAY.

The following sites will be viewed and used as prayer reminders on this tour:

Pentagon	Federal Reserve Board
Arlington Cemetery	Washington Monument
Iwo Jima Marine Corps Memorial	White House
Lincoln Memorial	FBI & Justice Dept.
Vietnam Veterans Memorial	U.S. Capitol

The National Prayer Embassy is a long-time supporter of Kenneth Copeland Ministries. Since 1994 we have conducted annual prayer tours of Washington, D.C. in conjunction with Kenneth Copeland meetings, where the Copeland staff announced our tour from their platform and allowed us to take reservations in their lobby. Begun in 1983, the National Prayer Embassy helps believers in Jesus Christ to obey God’s Word in 1st Timothy 2:1-4 by praying first of all for all nations, leaders and world events, so that we’ll have peace to spread the gospel.

(TOP) ROBERTA (BOBI) HROMAS was featured on the front cover of Christianity Today magazine in Oct. 1987. In 1982 she founded the American Christian Trust as a bed and breakfast prayer house in D.C., the year before Jeff Wright moved to D.C. and began weekly Sunday morning D.C. prayer tours, many times for groups staying at the American Christian Trust. Bobi Hromas passed from this world to heaven on Aug. 3, 2021; Jeff Wright attended a memorial service for her at the American Christian Trust on Oct. 17, 2021. Part of Mrs. Hromas' vision was to recruit local pastors to bring their prayer warriors to help maintain 24/7 prayer in the prayer room of the American Christian Trust which is located on the west side of the Israeli Embassy. Jeff joined that effort by bringing a prayer team on the 1st Friday of each month from 1984 -1988 to pray from midnight until 6 A.M. (BOTTOM) OCT. 3: In recent years Jeff was recruited by a D.C. area long-time messianic rabbi to establish a 1st Saturday 6 A.M. – 7 A.M. prayer altar at the American Christian Trust in conjunction with the Jericho Prayer Movement, which coordinates similar prayer altars at 10 strategic D.C. locations plus others across America and the world. This photo was taken in the prayer room; see more on next page.

(TOP) LEFT: MARK PRITCHETT has been serving as the administrator for the American Christian Trust for many years. His mother belonged to the Bible Study that met in Bobi Hromas' home for years and from which the money was raised to buy the American Christian Trust in D.C. in 1982 on the west side of the Israeli Embassy. Mark also currently serves as the resident manager/cook/cleaner/laundry service and all-around servant leader at the Trust. (MIDDLE) In 1983 Jeff Wright donated his Prayer Handbook and Motivation to Pray for Nations, Leaders & World Events to the prayer room of the American Christian Trust, which has kept those resources on display there for almost 40 years to help intercessors pray God's Word for nations, leaders and world events. (BOTTOM) Recently the prayer room was repainted and redecorated, including this new drape for the back of the piano: Let All Nations Praise The Lord!

JULIUS GORDON (FAR LEFT) left this world for heaven on Oct. 15, 2021 at the age of 77. Julius grew up in Washington, D.C. and was a veteran of the US Navy during the Vietnam war. He was a long-time employee of the telephone company Verizon, and was a pioneer in racial integration of that workplace after his military service. Julius had a Jewish grandfather, a Baptist grandmother, and a Muslim father. In the Navy Julius's dogtag said "Muslim." He also studied Transcendental Meditation for several years. Eventually a co-worker at the phone company got him to start watching TV preacher Fred Price from Crenshaw Christian Center in Los Angeles, CA. From there Julius saw a TV ad for a local DC area church that taught the same principles of faith for healing and prosperity that Fred Price taught. Thus in 1986 Julius joined Victory World Outreach Church (the host church for the National Prayer Embassy) and became active in the choir, home groups, men's ministry, homeless shelter ministry and street ministry. Julius served as a board member for the past 20 years and a frequent participant in our Prayer Tours. In 1998 – 2000 Julius and his wife Joan led a bi-weekly DC prayer tour and filled in for Jeff Wright in leading the annual DC Prayer Tour in conjunction with Kenneth Copeland Ministries DC Victory Campaign. Julius and Joan also attended several of the Hollywood Prayer Tours conducted by Jeff Wright and the National Prayer Embassy from 1996 – 2009 in conjunction with Kenneth Copeland Ministries West Coast Believers Conventions, and did many prayer tours of state capitols on their way to and from California. From 2010 - 2020 Julius helped host the weekly Sunday morning church service for Victory World Outreach Church in the home he shared with his wife Joan. For about ten years from about 2001 -2011 Julius and Joan led the prayer room at the annual Weekends to Remember Family Life Marriage Conferences in the Washington, DC area. Julius and Joan had a remarkable prayer life together as a married couple, spending an hour together in prayer first thing every morning for decades. Well done good and faithful servant of our Lord Jesus Christ!
