All the above Aglow groups were referred to NPE by Alice Holland, Wash., D.C. area. These Aglow Teams have been coming to D.C. to pray with NPE since their Fall 2008 D.C. conference when NPE helped take all 2000 delegates on D.C. Prayer Tours using 20 buses in caravan. They plan to continue sending regional prayer teams in 2017 and to purchase a permanent prayer house in D.C.! Since 2010 the NPE has taken a total of 52 Regional Aglow Prayer Teams on D.C. Prayer Tours, an average of about seven teams per year!

(TOP) FEB. 26 Eagles of Fire Prophetic Gathering organized by Blossom Brackman (4th from right) at the Holiday Inn Rosslyn, VA included a D.C. Prayer Tour led by NPE Director Jeff Wright—Blossom has since moved from Pennsylvania to the D.C. area to be more active in prayer for the U.S. government, including another D.C. Prayer Tour with NPE Director Jeff Wright and NPE Special Advisor Ruth Mizell on June 25. Bill and Pam Ulmer (2nd and 3rd from right) currently live in the Pensacola, FL area but have sensed God leading them to spend more time praying in D.C. including (MIDDLE) MAY 28 another D.C. Prayer Tour led by NPE Director Jeff Wright which also included Israel Musonda (2nd from left) who is helping his father Charles David Moses Musonda in establishing their own prayer house in D.C. (BOTTOM) MAY 31 Bill and Pam Ulmer joined NPE Director Jeff Wright and NPE Special Advisor Ruth Mizell (front row center) for a visit to the Congressional Prayer Chapel at the U.S. Capitol just prior to attending the “Jefferson Gathering” a Wed. eve. worship, Bible study and prayer time held every week for congressmembers and their staff.

(TOP) MAY 25 -26 Watchmen On The Wall Pastors Conference in D.C. hosted each May since 2007 by Family Research Council. NPE director Jeff Wright has attended each year primarily to help man the prayer room, including early morning prayer. Besides those shown here, another 25 pastors from across America were in attendance at early morning prayer, with a total of 300 pastors at the conference. (BOTTOM) JUNE 3 Since 2011 NPE Director Jeff Wright has been attending the JERICHO PRAYER MOVEMENT, a joint D.C. area churches outdoor prayer meeting (www.jerichoprayermovement.org). For the last 10 years simultaneous outdoor prayer meetings have been held from 7 A.M.-8 A.M. on the first Saturday of every month at 13 strategic D.C. locations including the U.S. Capitol, Supreme Court, State Dept., White House, Washington Monument, Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial and in Southeast and Northeast D.C. by churches of different ethnicities and denominations joining from opposite sides of the D.C. metro area. Then each month from 8:30 A.M. – 9:30 A.M. many of the participants follow-up at a breakfast meeting where each group shares the highlights of their worship and prayer, and then all close with prayer standing in a circle holding hands (SHOWN ABOVE).

(TOP) APRIL 14 NPE Director Jeff Wright joined Minister Johnny Rice (left) to blow shofars at the White House as a prayer for Godly values to prevail in America through the U.S. government. Minister Johnny Rice was a member of Benny Hinn’s church in Orlando, FL and then Rodney Howard-Browne’s church in Tampa, FL before being led of God to minister in India, Africa and California. In the summer of 2015 he was led of God to move from California to D.C. to focus on politics, evangelism, prayer and shofar-blowing with a loud speaker playing Benny Hinn worship near the White House, U.S. Capitol, Lincoln Memorial and Trump Hotel, in addition to the two major political party conventions last summer in Cleveland and Philadelphia, and after Nov. 8th in front of Trump Tower in NYC. Since the Jan. 20th inauguration of President Trump Johnny has been ministering in front of the White House, where he often has to compete with a loud muslim giving the islamic call to prayer and waving a banner in Arabic, as well as assorted other street protestors, performers, police and tourists. His latest mission is to run for the 2018 U.S. Congressional election in Maryland’s 5th district against veteran incumbent democrat Steny Hoyer. (BOTTOM) MAY 4, 3 P.M – 6 P.M. National Day of Prayer at west lawn U.S. Capitol—NPE Director Jeff Wright was asked to lead singing for “We are One in the Spirit” (see next page).

For Your Great Name's Sake!

Hear us ...Forgive us ...Heal us!

"Lord, listen! Lord, forgive! Lord, hear and act! For your sake, my God, do not delay, because your city and your people bear your Name." Daniel 9:19

The 33rd Capital Region National Day of Prayer (CRNDP)

May 4, 2017

It is with that Kingdom Mindset we cry out to God for Your Great Name sake; Hear us, Forgive us, Heal us.

Voices of Unity: Led by Jeff Wright "We are One in the Spirit"

We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord
We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord
And we pray that our unity will one day be restored
And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love
Yeah they'll know we are Christians by our love

We will work with each other, we will work side by side
We will work with each other, we will work side by side
And we'll guard each man's dignity and save each man's pride
And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love
Yeah, they'll know we are Christians by our love.

(TOP) MARCH 5 Veteran Homeland Security agent and whistleblower Phil Haney joined our local church for the D.C. Prayer Tour and our 11 A.M. service. Phil is the author of See Something, Say Nothing and is currently being considered for a position in the Trump administration. For more info on Phil see our NPE prayer alert for the week of July 16–22, 2017.

PSALM 91

1. He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
2. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.
3. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.
4. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.
5. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;
6. Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.
7. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.
8. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.
9. Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;
10. There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
11. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.
12. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.
13. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.
14. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.
15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.
16. With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

Above pocket cards of Psalm 91 are available in bulk from Kenneth Copeland Ministries. We have been passing them out to the police at the U.S. Capitol (such as at our latest visit on May 31) and to the Secret Service agents at the White House (such as at our latest visit on April 14). We tell the officers that Ps. 91 is the best prayer in the Bible for protection, and that officers who say this out loud every day have a much lower rate of injury, which is what we want for them, and we're praying for their safety and we appreciate their service. This is a great way to witness to police, military or security personnel anywhere! The above "much lower rate of injury" claim is based on a testimony included in the book Hand On The Helm by Katherine P. Carter published by Whitaker House in 1977 which tells of a British regiment in World War One all of whom were required to recite this Psalm out loud every day—in four years of frontline fighting they had not one casualty! This book is still available from Amazon.com.
